I AM THE SPIRIT OF ST. MARY'S

I AM FAITH IN ALMIGHTY

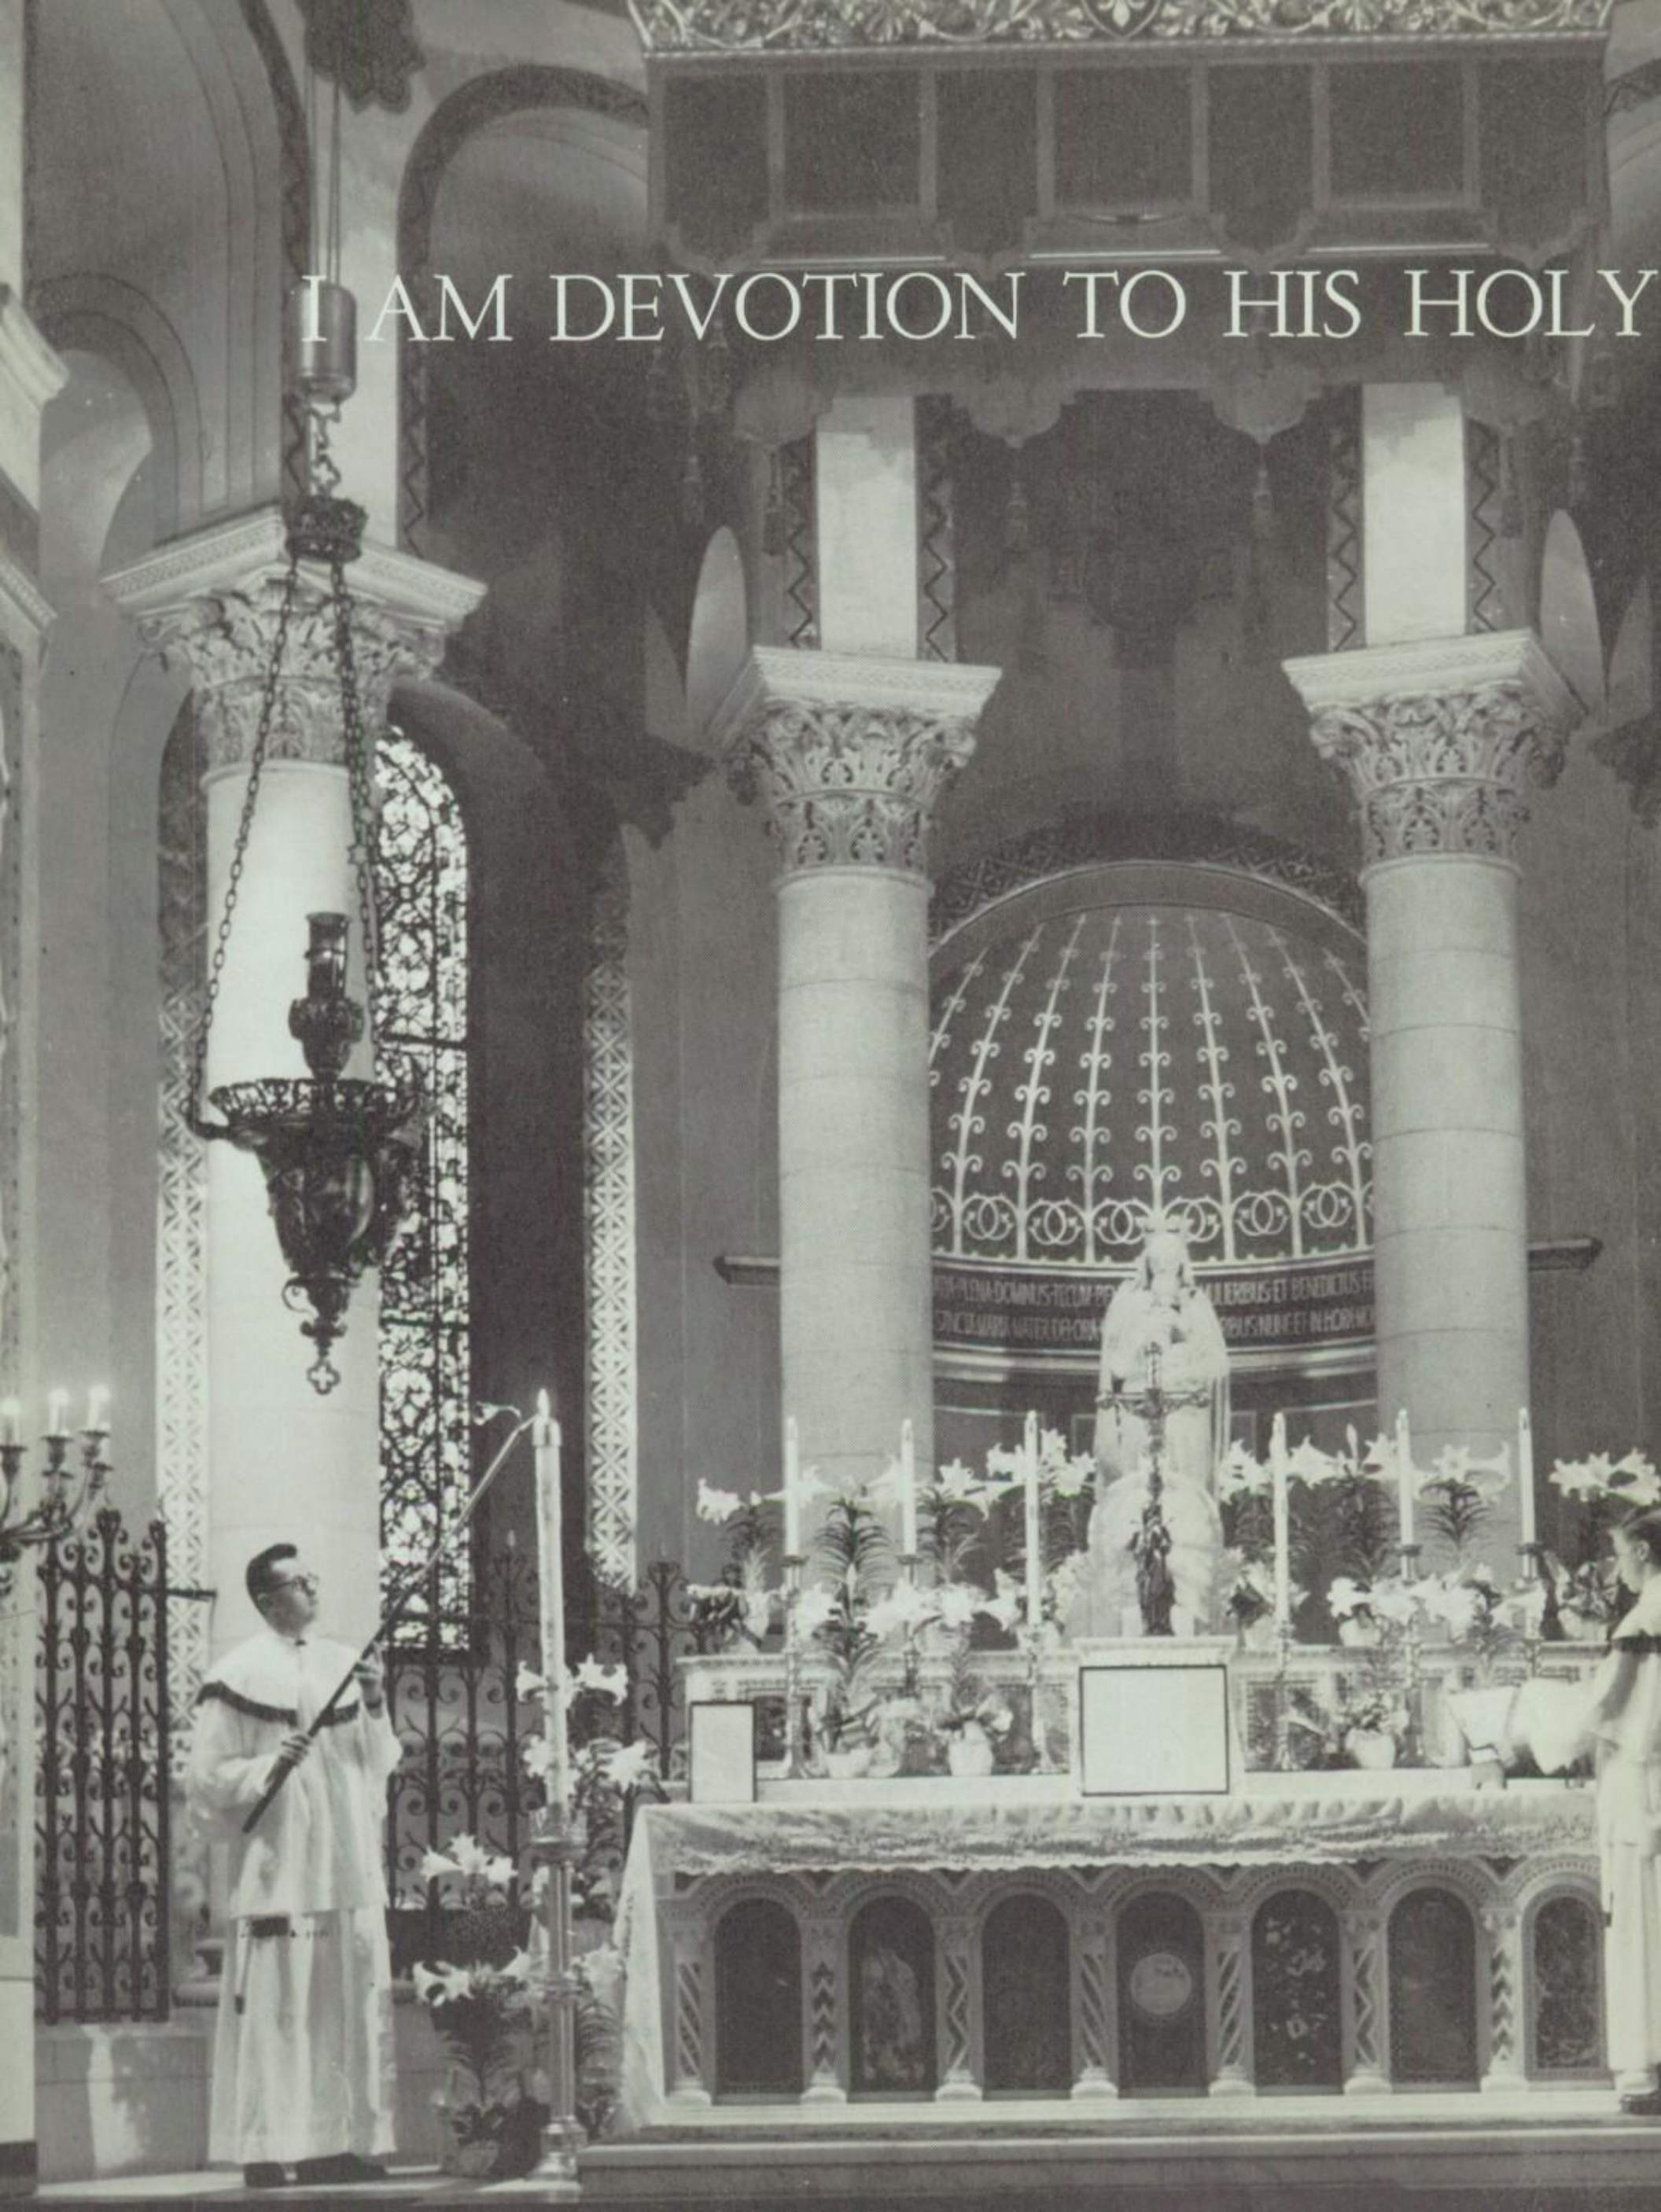

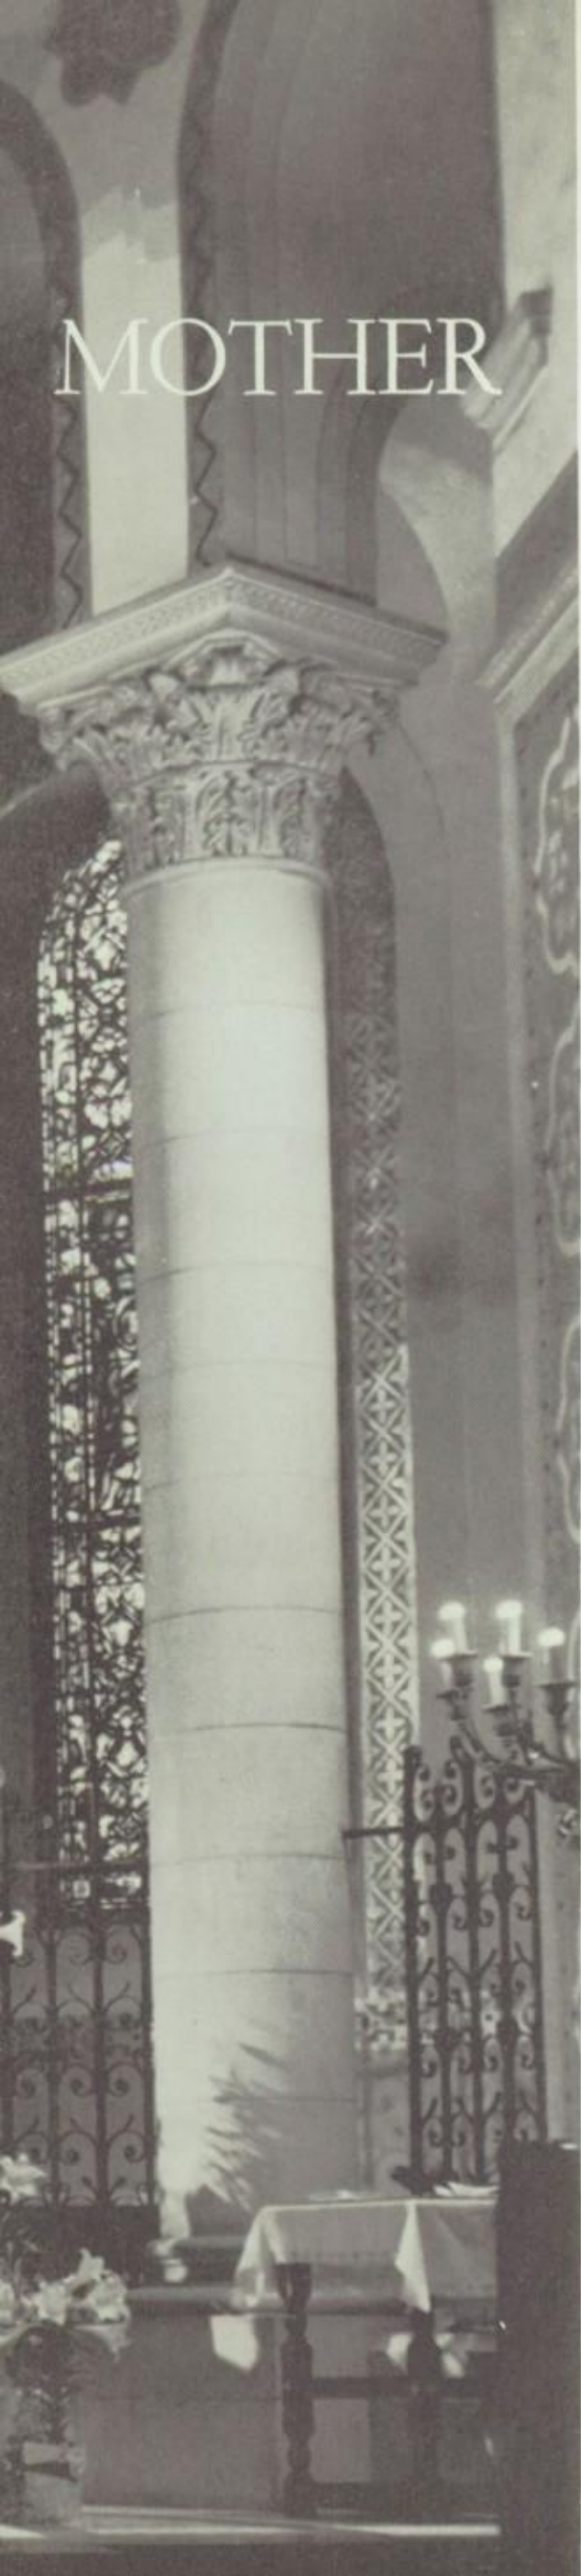

I am rooted in the past . . . born of a pioneer parentage. In the days of my infancy, the quiet stillness of the area now known as St. Mary's was broken only by the ring of the woodman's axe or the quiet swish of the settler's sickle. Now, I am a part of a great metropolis, filled with the roar of motors . . . the wail of sirens. Though a hundred summers have come . . . a hundred winters have passed, I remain essentially the same . . . I am strong and resolute . . . I am faith in God . . . almighty and eternal. I know compassion and charity . . . the Mother of God is my mother. I was born in an era of adversity and challenge . . . today my adversaries challenge my right to be. What I really am, found expression in a letter penned by the first zealous shepherd of St. Mary's. This bears significance . . . he wrote in full view of the smoldering ashes of what materially had been St. Mary's. (Know Nothing Movement) Rejoice, O youth of St. Mary's, that ten decades later you play a part in the fulfillment of his aspirations.

"May this Church . . . become forever the center of a zealous population devoted to our Lord and full of love for His Holy Mother. And may the light of Faith never be extinguished in these districts given to our care."

— From a letter of the Rev. Edmond Dumont, first pastor of St. Mary of Redford, 1860.

I AM DEVOTION TO HIS HOLY

MOTHER

I am born of that Wisdom and Charity which is God . . . and of a universal need of men. I am the love and devotion for Mary found in the heart of the pioneer . . . I am that same love alive in the heart of St. Mary's to-day. Does so great a constancy elicit an explanation? Known by many titles . . . playing a variety of roles, Mary has but one unique vocation: to bear Christ to the world . . . to hold Him aloft in His Humanity at Bethlehem . . . to present Him as the Redeemer to the Father and the world on Calvary's hill . . . and from the heights of heaven to channel the Christ-life, His Grace, to every man on earth, who so wills. In the world of the spirit, this then, is God's plan: that Mary be the universal mother of men. She is also the first great exemplar . . . the perfect pattern for the Christian follower. She is humanity at its best . . . "Our taunted nature's solitary boast." Is this realization an answer to the why of St. Mary's tremendous growth . . . of her virile youth? I am the spirit of this valiant woman . . . she who was foretold by the prophets and whom every generation has called blessed. High up and encircling the dome above the high altar, is a Scriptural passage bearing my message and my spirit. Ponder it well.

"Who is she that cometh forth as the morning rising, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army set in array?"

Monsignor Hickey will be gratefully remembered by the Senior Class for his love of the Blessed Sacrament, his devotion to our Lady, his fidelity to duty, his appreciation of the beautiful, of his dignity with the great, and his kindness with the small.

“Teach me goodness and discipline and knowledge, for I have believed Thy Commandments, O Lord.”

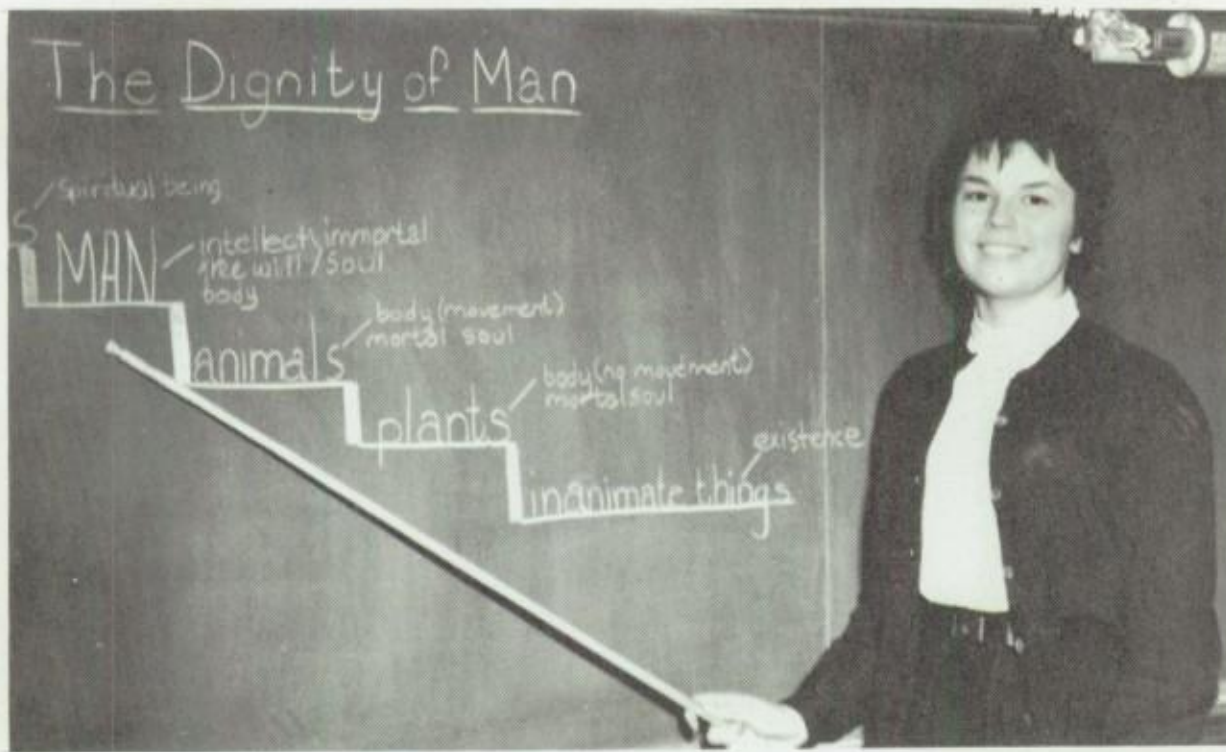

Academic Activity

Mary plays a dual role in the academic world . . . the perfect pupil of the Holy Spirit . . . the perfect teacher of the Son. Scripture records her docility to His every inspiration . . . contemplation of His every word . . . "But Mary kept all these words, pondering them in her heart." Under her tutelage at Nazareth, the youthful Christ, "grew in wisdom, age, and grace". Small wonder, then, that Mary serves as model for both teacher and pupil.

Preparation for the Modern

Through the instruction of Reverend Father Seifen and the four senior teachers, we learn to meet the basic challenges of our future. We study apologetics, the sacrament of matrimony, and communism. Through thorough study and practical examples we learn to live and defend our Faith, now as students and in the future as laymen or religious.

Veronica Cooke explains the basic lessons of apologetics.

In the teaching of religion, Father Seifen is always as willing to listen as to instruct.

LANGUAGE:

Mary Ann Salley and Christine Franco examine some new additions to the library.

Language, one of the basic means of communication, is necessary for the promotion of world understanding and peace. Our courses in English, French, and Latin broaden our knowledge of and develops skills in the language arts. We hope to practice what Lincoln so aptly said, "I will study and get ready — tomorrow the opportunity will come." Major emphasis is given to the study of English. We should be proficient in the use of our mother tongue; reading, writing, and speaking it fluently and intelligently. French students gain invaluable information about the culture, history, and literature of France, as well as a familiarity with the language itself. Considerable attention is also given to Latin since it is the foundation and key to many of our modern languages, and opens the door to the ancient Roman world.

Research at the public library for our term paper—Kathleen Bailey, Gail Campbell, Mary Love, Margaret Ostrowski, Gail Fraley, and Mary Early.

Carolyn Pawlak learns to manipulate the calculator.

Automation is having its repercussions in the commercial world as well as in others. The result is that students must be trained in the use of modern office equipment that will be a part of everyday work. To keep up with the trend, a course in office practice and office machines was added to our curriculum last September. The addition of this course does not mean that the traditional commercial subjects — shorthand, typing, business math, and bookkeeping, are being de-emphasized. Rather, a knowledge of these subjects is necessary to efficiently operate the modern office equipment.

Business education trends have become increasingly popular in the last few years. The reason being that probably more people are prepared for immediate employment after high school through these courses. Without the skill and knowledge of the typists, stenographers, and bookkeepers, business in our country would come to a sudden stand-still. Judging from the popularity of these courses, our future business offices should be well staffed.

WE FILL THE HALLS WITH THE BEAUTY OF SONG

Culture has a place at St. Mary's. It is for this reason that choral work has a part in our curriculum. The beautiful Christmas program, the expertly handled operetta and the Archdiocesan Choral Festival at the close of the year, together with the numerous times our choral groups have been requested to add the "needed something" on special occasions, are all manifestations of its cultural excellence. Mr. Frank Ryan, our able choral director, is very adapt at blending the almost opposite components of relaxation and labor. We love to sing and work hard at it. The newly formed honor choral consists of especially screened and trained voices. It made its debut at the Christmas concert and from the splendid reception it received, we feel certain it will become a permanent part of our choral department.

Religious Activity

Only a Divine Wisdom could have planned the barren cave of Bethlehem as the focal point of all history . . . here time began, as it were, for do we not date all our human comings and goings . . . B.C. and A.D. . . . here the Christian religion had its simple beginning . . . for Christ, the Son of God is now with us . . . here Mary received her greatest title . . . Mother of God . . . that unique privilege from which all others flow. But in a wider sense, Bethlehem is not a fixed place and a static event . . . Christ is born daily in human hearts through the powerful intercession of His Mother. As long as time is, there will be Bethlehem on earth because Mary will always labor to have Christ born in the souls of men.

"I am come that they may have life,

The senior president, Charles Zech, leads the student body in the recitation of the Mass prayers.

It is not enough to pray and worship singly and only as an individual at the Divine Sacrifice. A sense of unity is found in the Mass. "Dominus vobiscum" the priest intones — "the Lord be with you" — as with extended arms he faces the people present. By means of this action and the old Biblical salutation, the Liturgy seeks to satisfy a wish that all of the faithful be gathered together and made one in their supplications. This action is repeated eight solemn times during the Mass.

The recent popes, bishops, and pastors are only carrying out the original spirit of the Church when they ask for active participation in Divine worship. In response to their requests the student body participates in a dialogue Mass every week, as well as on Sunday.

Praise God through music.

SENIOR CONSECRATION TO MARY

Members of the crowning court: Gail Fraley, Virginia Legel, Maryane Tibaldi (crowning queen), Mary Love, and Mary Catherine Meyer.

Fulfills a Tradition

For many years the annual novena, preceding December 8th and culminating in a consecration to Mary, has been a highlight of lasting memory for each Senior class. The custom originated when the 1928 graduates decided that, since Mary Immaculate was their parish patroness, she be shown some special honor. This occasion marks the first time the Seniors appear, as a group, in cap and gown. The members privileged to form the crowning court are chosen by the Senior girls.

Sacred song and music forever remain a most acceptable form of prayer.

'Hail thee Queen Immaculate'

May we always practice the faith of our pioneer fathers.

Benediction gives us Christ's blessing before we go.

THE THOUGHTS OF YOUTH

The 1960 calendar of parish activities included a Mission conducted by the Redemptorist Fathers — the Rev. J. Joseph Dustin, the Rev. John Fulford and the Rev. John Glennon. A mission is a spiritual renewal, an extraordinary event in the life of the individual and the parish. The third week, November 13, was devoted to the young people of the area whether they attended St. Mary's or the public school. A well filled church every evening and added numbers at Mass and Holy Communion in the morning gave testimony that our youth took advantage of this extraordinary call of God. These Fathers well exemplified the admonition of St. Alphonsus, the founder of the Redemptorist Congregation, "be a lion in the pulpit and a lamb in the confessional."

Boys always have many favors to ask of the Blessed Mother.

The zeal and eloquence of Rev. Father Dustin C.S.s.R. held record attendance for an entire week.

ARE LONG LONG THOUGHTS

This year, in place of the usual three day retreat, three separate days of recollection were substituted. The first was held in December, the second in March and the third was held during May. Days such as these, give the pupils a spiritual breathing period and assist them in developing a sense of purpose and direction.

enkindled the Christmas spirit in all.

'To-day there is singing in praise of God.' This indeed became a reality through the combined efforts of the girls' choral, the boys' glee club, and the honor choir. With the aid of soloists Margaret Hayes and Lanette Asher and the little drummer boy, who captured the hearts of all, the first Christmas came to life again. The favorable reactions of both parents and students marked it as one of the best concerts St. Mary's has ever staged.

FOUNDERS' DAY

"We who live here in Detroit,
Are often sad at heart,—
So few our priests—so far-flung
Their missions. Each day we watch our
Broad-bosomed river carry white-sailed ships
From lake to lake, always with the hope
That one will land in our fair harbor
To bright us him who will shepherd us
And our children.
The fields of Michigan, O God, are white
For harvest, we would have our children learn
Your name, Your law, Your love."

Beginning with these beautiful lines, the St. Mary verse choir unfolded the story of the founding of our Immaculate Heart Sisters. Interesting episodes were enacted as the story progressed while frequently plaintive song caught up the theme.

In brief the story runs thus: Father Gillet, a young Belgian Redemptorist due to the great lack of religious and his inability to recruit any from his homeland, founded a native American sisterhood. Their work was education. The foundation included Theresa Maxis and Ann Schaaf of Baltimore and a young Grosse Pointe girl, Theresa Renault. The only home Pere Gillet had to offer them was a little log cabin. Each year since, on November 10th, our Sisters celebrate the founding of their log-cabin convent.

Fr. Gillet (Robert Russette) receives his commission from Bishop Le Fevre (Michael Brautigan) to labor in Michigan with Monroe as a center.

Fr. Gillet reveals to Theresa Renault (Mary Catherine Meyer), that her desire to become a religious, awaits only her parent's approval.

The verse choir tells the dramatic story in majestic blank verse.

Social Activity

Mary is the model in all of our social contacts. It is God's Will that our growth in spiritual maturity be accomplished through the ordinary daily routine . . . not the extraordinary. Christ must be born again in each human life as He was of Mary. We shall be asked for the flesh and blood of our daily life; our thoughts, our services to one another . . . our affection and love . . . our words and our intellect . . . our waking, working and sleeping hours . . . our ordinary human joys and sorrows. Each organizational group of our school claims Mary as a patron.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Robert Donahue announces activities for both the Student Council and Pep Squad.

The link between students and faculty, the student council, tries to promote harmonious relations for efficient school direction. Bringing before the teachers the opinions and wishes of the students, the council brings back to the classroom the decisions which the members and the faculty agree upon. One of the outgrowths of this cooperation was "Friendly Week" promoted early in the school year. The aim was to try to create an atmosphere of congeniality in our school between all of the students and faculty. They assisted in the management of school traffic during exchange of classes. At second semester, "A Student of the Month Club" was organized. The selection was based on school citizenship and service. Later in the year, they assisted the members of the Dad's Club by acting as hosts to the speakers on Career Day. To help fill idle leisure time, the council also sponsored record hops after home basketball games. The results of these joint efforts bring very worthwhile projects to the attention of the students and help to make them realize the good that can be accomplished through cooperative legislation both in school and out.

Mary Catherine Meyer explains the aims of the National Honor Society at the Induction Ceremony.

The lighting of the four colored candles, each symbolizing an end of the society, is an impressive part of the induction program. Mary Grace Carroll lights the service candle.

National Honor Society trains leaders.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, but all play and no work makes him what is worse, a play boy. Neither of these prerogatives can be applied to the National Honor Society. The qualifications for membership strikes a happy medium between the two. Scholarship is only one of the requirements necessary, for each member must exhibit character and leadership, besides giving service. The scholastic attainments are clearly written in the records, and so must these latter three qualifications be exemplified and recorded. In an effort to reach these standards, the 1960 and 1961 members introduced a general cultural program to the school, ranging from a serious, educational lecture by Sister Thomas Aquinas, I.H.M., to a humorous solo drama by Miss Mary Louise Hickey. A home talent show was presented March 17th. The climax of their activities is the induction ceremony, during which new members are received and the achievements of the members displayed. The National Honor Society should produce outstanding citizens of tomorrow.

THE SODALITY

Youth, they say, is a time to build ideals. The sodality's threefold aim of personal holiness, sanctification of neighbor and the defense of the Church, offers a way of life whose ideals are without peer. Mary is the model in this great work and as the late Holy Father, Pius XII has said we must act as her visible hands upon earth: To be a sodalist means to try to think, judge and act as Mary would.

The activities of the various homeroom sodality groups have been quite varied. Some of the more general were the preparation of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for the poor, the staffing of the Nazareth nursery (babysitting for mothers attending Mass), attending interracial council meetings, soliciting prayers for the Holy Father at Christmas, the promotion of Catholic Youth Week observances, conducting a poster contest for putting Christ back in Christmas, the attendance at S.S.C.A. (Summer School of Catholic Action), the sodality rally at the U. of D. high school and T.S.S.A. (Training School of Social Action) at the U. of D. University.

Song is one of the noblest ways of praising God. On Friday and Sunday of each week, the choir leads the student body and the people of the parish in singing the hymns and chants of the Community Mass. They also sing the responses at the High Mass on Thursdays and holydays of obligation.

KNIGHTS OF THE ALTAR

From the social standpoint, an altar boy is necessary for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass since the Mass is offered for the entire Mystical Body. The acolyte is the official representative of the faithful laity. With this in mind, we understand how necessary is the presence of the altar boy. The Knights of the Altar form a worthy guard of honor for our Eucharistic King. These boys willingly contribute their time and effort to assist the priest. The basic requirements needed for membership are reverence, on the altar, punctuality in fulfilling their duties, and giving good example to companions.

There has been an increase in the enrollments of the organizations devoted to service recently, particularly the Future Teachers Club. This is a healthy sign, since it indicates that more are developing a sense of Christian maturity. They are also heeding President Kennedy's admonition "What can I do for my country". Teachers, nurses and social workers can exert a tremendous influence for good or ill, on the American people.

LEADERS

Behind the SPIRIT

Each year the Pep Squad does its best to forge and hold together active school pride. Throughout the football and basketball seasons the group fills the halls with posters that stimulate enthusiastic game attendance. Victory campaigns are conducted, when spirit lags. The season reaches its peppiest peak when the Pep Squad sponsors the Homecoming Dance. Under the guidance of Sister M. Christopher, the Pep Squad has worked hard to keep the Rustic Spirit high in supporting school athletics.

Our senior jesters, William Ouellette and Charles Albus.

The Spirit Behind the Scenes

Enthusiasm personified — these are cheerleaders of St. Mary's. You always see them full of pep, eager to cheer the team to victory. What makes a cheerleader? Energy—will to work—unselfishness. Every noonhour is filled with practice—improvising new cheers and polishing the old. Attendance at games, for them, is imperative. A game without cheerleaders is as unthinkable as a game without a team. Besides directing the cheers, they give that added zip needed to spur the team to victory. Power and importance is really tested when the Rustic spirit looms high, even in the face of defeat. With this, we salute the Rustic Cheerleaders.

The Men Who Made THE RUSTICS AA LEAGUE CHAMPS

"We have a couple of good players, a few average players, and a lot of scrap! But it's the dog with the most scrap that wins the fight." With these words, Coach Galante described our football team at the first pep rally. Newspapers, critics, and even the student body seemed to share his opinion. The cry for victory looked as though it would never be answered this year. But the "couple of good players" developed into excellent ones. The "average" became good, and the "scrap" proved we could win the fight if we tried hard enough. As a result of this combination and the united spirit of the school, our Rustics answered the cry and brought us another victorious season.

IN BASKETBALL

Although the scoreboards sadly recorded the tale of our losing season, the students and the parish will always regard it as one of our finest years. An overflowing gym rocked with cheers from the first time to the last. The team itself played each game as if they were champions — and in the true sense they were, for if trophies were given for hard work and real spirit, the Rustics again would be victorious.

ST. MARY'S SWIMMING TEAM DIVES INTO ACTION

Under Coach Firlik's competent direction, the enthusiastic 'frogmen' of St. Mary's have had a successful season. The team worked hard to keep up the Rustic reputation for a strong, united spirit and true sportsmanship. Its success is evidenced in the interest shown by their fellow students. This new swimming team is a good addition to the Rustic sports program.

Contrary to the popular belief, the girls on the basketball team enjoy participating in the sport whether they win or lose. It provides them with exercise, relaxation, and a chance to develop the qualities of good sportsmanship and fair play. They may not be as well-known in the sports world as our football team, but in our school they will always be remembered for their lively spirit and will to win.

Contrary to some predictions the Rustics played a very successful year of football this season and earned the A A championship trophy.

Our co-captains also won honors. Thomas Bagnasco was chosen All City-Parochial League by the Michigan Catholic. Tom played end. The Detroit News voted Walter Kozlowski All City-Parochial League. Walt played guard. Both received Honorable Mention-All State.

Co-captains Walter Kozlowski and Joseph Bagnasco with Coach Galante, proudly display the new trophy.

Ring Ceremony

It is surprising how a small, crested gold band can unite seniors and deepen school spirit. The last hour of October 12th passed all too quickly. Mr. Ryan's senior girls' choral opened the program, after which Monsignor blessed our rings and explained their significance. The Juniors served brownies and ice cream.

BRIGADOON BRING A WEE BIT

If you have a liking for the land of the plaid and the clan, the highlands and lowlands of Scotland, you would have liked "Brigadoon". When the story opens two twentieth century American travelers are out on the moor, watching the chill sea mist slowly drift down over the purple heather. Suddenly the whole valley is filled with the eerie, plaintive strains of bagpipes. Out of nowhere, a quaint eighteenth century village appears and settles down before their startled eyes. Its people, they learn, awaken once every hundred years. Then the real story unfolds. It is a happy blending of love and excitement, of mystery and intrigue. The leading players and the supporting cast enjoyed every hour of their long weeks of practice and feel that "Brigadoon", by Lerner and Loewe, presented on April 16th, 17th, and 18th, 1961, was one of the finest operettas given by our choral department.

Tommy Albright (Joseph Ryan) and Jeff Douglas (Thomas Lahey), American tourists on a hunting trip in Scotland.

Jean MacLaren (Sue Stark) at whose wedding a crisis mars the Scottish idyll.

Graduates

A great love of Mary is one of inestimable gifts St. Mary's can bring to her graduates . . . a realization that the Mother of God is their Mother. May she obtain for them a more glorious heaven and a new earth because through her example, they have learned to see with His eyes . . . to hear with His ears . . . to work with His hands and walk with His feet . . . to trust with His trust in His Heavenly Father.

Joy is found in giving

The poor are remembered at Christmas. Front Row: Mary Buck, Carol Brinkman. Back Row: Madeline Spehar, Paul Hollowaty, Michael Thornton, Joseph Kamor, and Thomas Daly.

David Sporer gives two underclassmen a preview of the television system the seniors wish to leave the school.

Youth is a time for joy.

Nancy Ayotte, Joan Nagrant, and Virginia Legel help to organize the Thanksgiving baskets.

'The poor you have always with you' is not an idle admonition.

The choir members brighten the night with their Christmas Carols.

Fun is where you find it

Gail Campbell, Mary Early, Gail Fraley, Kathleen Bailey, Mary Love, and Mary Buck find time to laugh.

It's fun to play — and fun to cheer, it's fun, just to belong.

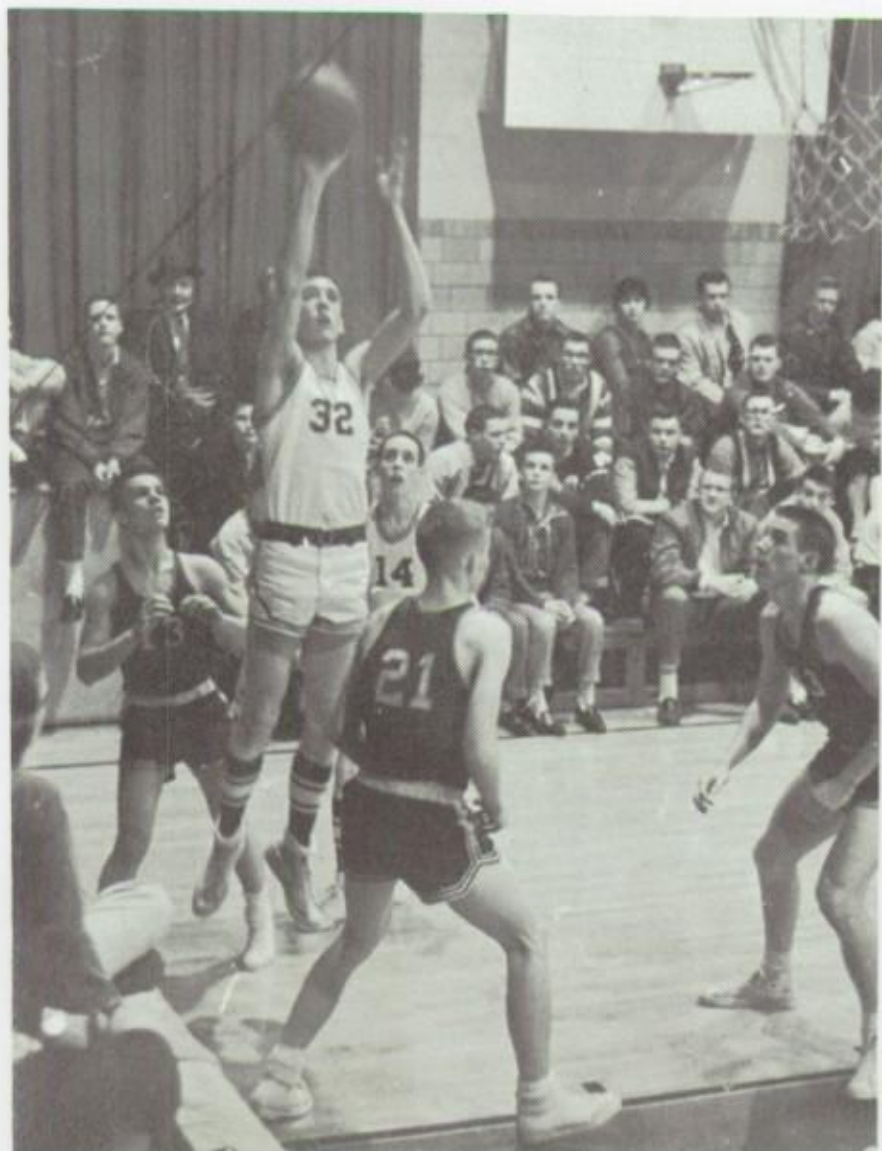

"A few crumbs won't be missed."

The modern, "ole swimin hole."

An example of the spirit of the Rustics.

It's great to be alive.

Our famous Junior float — Charles Zech and Paul Hollowaty.

going to live better than ever before ... electrically!

You, today's graduate, are entering an exciting new era where you will live better than any generation has ever lived before—the era of all-electric living.

Your all-electric home for example, thanks to time-saving electric equipment and appliances, will allow you and your family more time to enjoy life together.

Your job will be smoother, too. Electricity, in everything from office equipment to heavy machinery, will lighten your work—make it more enjoyable.

If you decide on further education, your field of study may well be related to electricity. Perhaps someday, as a scientist or technician, you will even lend your knowledge to further mold the all-electric world of tomorrow.

But wherever the future finds you, whatever your place in life, electricity will be there to help you live better than ever before—live better electrically.

A milestone's about to happen. Your graduation marks a decisive period in your life. Behind is an important, formative period of learning. And ahead? The course is yours to choose, whether it be more study or the start of a career. We at Michigan Consolidated Gas Company join friends and family in wishing you well in your new adventures... hoping that your new-worlds-to-conquer outlook never dims.

"There's a girl I'd like to know"

"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained by friendly, understanding supervisors and today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled mid-morning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that kind of job worth going after? Then why not get in touch with us—perhaps there's a telephone job for you. We'll be happy to talk with you about the interesting work at Michigan Bell.

Now that the last copy has been written and the final deadline has been met, the staff of the 1961 Rustic would like to take time out from their jobs to thank all who have in any way contributed to the production of this book. Without the help of the patrons, sponsors, and advertisers, the book would not have materialized. To their fellow students and loyal faculty who have given their generous support and complete cooperation, they are very grateful. The members of the various committees who worked so long and hard deserve a special note of thanks. But, most important of all, the editors wish to express their wholehearted gratitude to Sister Francis Raphael, who acted as guiding moderator. They shall be forever indebted to her for the hours of patient assistance.
